1. Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Regulations in Malaysia

In Malaysia, the main legislation is the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act (MACC Act) 2009

It led to the official establishment of the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) as an independent, transparent and professional body

1 June 2020 - effective date of implementation of Section 17A of the MACC (Amendment) Act 2018 on Corporate Liability

The MACC Act 2009 came into effect on 1 January 2009

The MACC (Amendment) Act 2018 came into effect on 1 October 2018 except Section 4 (Provision on corporate liability)

Corporate Liability

- ✓ In 2018, the MACC Act 2009, was amended to include a Corporate Liability Provision (Section 17A).
- ✓ Enforcement of Corporate Liability Provision will take effect from 1 June 2020.

Section 17A of the MACC (Amendment) Act 2018 establishes a new statutory corporate liability offence of corruption by a commercial organisation.

A commercial organisation can be held liable for their failure to prevent corrupted practices by employees / associated persons done in the interest of the organisation, whether or not the top level management had actual knowledge of the corrupt acts.

Commercial organisations may be acquitted of a charge if they are able to show adequate measures are set up to prevent employees/ associated persons from undertaking corrupt practices.
